

Coffee is our business.

And, chances are, it's a big part of your business day, too. We offer more than 100 different types of coffee and tea from the most respected roasters such as Green Mountain, New England Coffee and Gloria Jean's.

We believe providing refreshments to your employees, clients and customers should be hassle-free. We know you have a business to run. At Coffee Express, customer satisfaction is our number one priority.

In fact, that's the Coffee Express credo: No contracts. No hassles. No kidding. We don't use contracts to hide behind. Instead, we build relationships that last for decades based on customer satisfaction.

As a one-stop office-refreshment source, Coffee Express provides our customers with fresh brewed and one-cup coffee equipment, water filtration systems, snacks and beverages, paper products and more.

If you are evaluating your current office refreshment needs, look to Coffee Express for:

- Premium products at cost-competitive prices
- Quantity discounts and bundling opportunities
- Complete line of office refreshment items for one-stop shopping
- Scheduled deliveries from friendly and dependable drivers
- Proactive equipment maintenance

fun Coffee facts

The darker the roast, the less caffeine.
The caffeine burns off during the roasting process so stronger-tasting coffee has less caffeine.
